Vienna, April 11. N. S.

PRince Eugene has put off his Departure to Italy for 3 or 4 days. Count Lewenſtein will be going ſhortly to his Government of Bavaria. Our laſt Accounts from General Heiſter ſay, That he was marched from Comorrah towards Presbourg, in order to attack a Body of Malecontents which was drawing together on that ſide, under the Command of Berzeni and Oskay, two of their Chiefs. We have received the Confirmation of the Defeat lately given by General Palfi, Ban of Croatia, to another Body of the Malecontents, with theſe further Particulars; That he had with him but 700 Men, and the other were 3000 ſtrong; and that 3 Officers of Note among the latter were killed in this Action. Moſt of the Imperial Forces that were in Gariſon at Modern, Poſing, and Fort St. George, 3 Forts of which the Malecontents have lately poſſeſſed themſelves, are arrived at Anger and Mark, on this ſide the River Mark, and, as is ſaid, are to be ſent to Italy. A Battalion of Militia which lay at Scherdingen mutinied lately, and marched towards Lintz; but Colonel de Wend followed them with 300 Horſe, and ſoon reduced them. There is a Report of a new Revolution in Turkey, and that the Grand Signior himſelf has been obliged to retire into Aſia: Others ſay, the Grand Viſier only is removed from his Employment, and another put into his place; But we know not yet what Credit is to be given to this News.

Zurick, April 15. Signior Vendiamo Bianchi arrived here lately from Venice, being ſent by that Republick to renew their ancient Treaties with the Cantons of Zurich and Bern. We have an Account, That the Gariſon of Verue beat a Parley the 7th Inſtant; but not coming to any Agreement with the French, they began to fire again on both ſides with greater Fury than before.

Coblentz, April 19. Two Regiments of the King of Pruſſia's Forces, one of thoſe of Munſter, and one of Swiſs, which is in the Pay of the Srates General, marched lately by this Place, going to Triers.

Francfort, April 19. The Daniſh Forces that are in Bavaria are ordered to begin their March forthwith to Italy. We hear that 3 French Battalions are lately come to Haguenau. The Enemy on this ſide continue to work with great Application upon their Lines. Several Regiments of our Huſſars lie between Lauterbourg and Weiſſembourg, where, as is ſaid, more Forces are expected; and the Count de Frize intends next week to put himſelf at the head of them.

Triers, April 19. The French Forces in theſe Parts are in motion: They have got together 15 Regiments of Foot and 7 of Horſe at Metz; and the Town of Diedenhoven is likewiſe filled with their Troops. We on our ſide take all the neceſſary Precautions for preventing their Deſigns, and are finiſhing our Lines and other Works for the Security of this Place with all poſſible Expedition.

Paris, April 12. We have the Confirmation of the Surrender of Verue, with theſe further Particulars; That on the 6th Inſtant the Gariſon beat a Parley, and offered to capitulate upon honourable Conditions; but the Duke de Vendoſme refuſed to grant them any: The next day they beat a Parley again; but the Duke inſiſting that they ſhould ſurrender themſelves Priſoners of War, they began to fire upon the Beſiegers with greater Fury than ever. The next day they ſet fire to their Mines, and blew up moſt of their Fortifications, and retired into the Fort called the Dunjeon; and after they had thus diſmantled the Town, and killed abundance of our Men, they ſurrendred at laſt on the 9th at Diſcretion, for want of ſufficient Proviſions. They write from Italy, That the Grand Prior has formally beſieged the Town of Mirandola

Hanover, April 21. The Elector of Hanover intends to go hence to morrow, in order to make a Viſit to the Duke of Cell. The Regiment of Stark, which is to ſerve this Summer under his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, began to march yeſterday.

Hague, April 24. N. S. Yeſterday Morning there came an Expreſs from the Count de Noyelles, dated at Treves the 15th Inſtant, giving an Account, That the French were drawing together an Army of 53000 Men on the Moſelle, with intent, as was thought, to attack Saarbrug; but there being no Expreſs come from him ſince, it is believed the Enemy have not yet undertaken any thing. The Count de Noyelles, on the other hand, was aſſembling all the Forces he had in thoſe Parts, which amount to upwards of 50 Battalions and 70 Squadrons, beſides the Engliſh, which are ordered to march out of Gariſon by the firſt of May, N. S. Yeſterday in the Afternoon the Deputies of the States for Foreign Affairs came to confer with his Grace the Duke of Marlborough upon the Subject of this Expreſs; and it was agreed, That the Army on the Maeſe ſhould be formed immediately, in order to make a Diverſion on this ſide. Admiral Allemonde took Leave of the States General this day, in order to go to Amſterdam: Having ſettled there his own private Affairs, he intends to embark next week on board the Sqadron, under his Command, deſigned for Portugal, and afterwards to ſail with the firſt fair Wind. Letters from France confirm the raiſing of the Siege of Gibraltar, and the taking of Verue by the French; which laſt Place ſurrendred the 9th for want of Proviſions.
